That in all cases where the owner of any land sold for taxes as aforesaid, his heirs or assigns, shall recover the same from the purchaser, his beirs or assigns, by the judgment of any United States court, by reason of a failure without his or their fault, or neglect of the title of the purchaser derived from said sale, the Secretary of the Treasury, on the payment into the treasury by the clerk of the money deposited with him as aforesaid, and on being satisfied that any purchaser, his heirs or as signs, has been evicted from or turned out of pessession of any such land by the judgment of any United States court in the manner betorementioned, is hereby authorized, out of any money in the Trea-ury not otherwise appropriated, to repay to the person or persons entitled thereto a sum of money equal to that originally paid by the purchaser of the land so recorded, it the same has been paid into the VIRGINIA .- "Mr. James Wilson, of Stafford County, Va., wrote extolling the advant the undersigned, commissioner appointed by ages offered to settlers by that section of the South. He said that his farm of five hundred auction, at Catts' tavern, in West End, in Fair-fax county, Va., on SATURDAY, the 21st day of January, 1871, at 12 o'clock m., the HOUSE cost him only five thousand dollars. He said that land could be bought there for from five to fifty dollars an acre. He said there were several tracts of timber land for sale there, distant from two to six miles from tidewater .-Mr. Disturnell remarked that the reason these timber lands had been so long uncut was that the South was unhealthy, and that unless the land was in the Shenandoah Valley, he advised no one to go there who did not want to die .-The Chairman suggested that people sometimes die at the North, so that the necessity of dying could hardly be escaped by remaining at

The above is taken from the Hearth and Home published in New York city, as a statement made in a Farmer's club, in the State of New York. The letter of Mr. Wilson is a correct one and truthful in every particular .-Mr. Disturnell received his information from a source not very reliable, when he makes the very erronious statement that he does, concerning the health of this section of the State .-No county is more healthy then the county alluded to, in the above. There is a number of large timber tracts of land in Stafford which were preserved by their owners before the war, in coosequence of their value, to the large estates owned at that time. These tracts are high lands and of course cannot be unhealthy. There is as an evidence of its healthfulness a great deal of iron in the soil, and the arrival deal of iron in the soil, and the arrival deal of iron in the soil, and the arrival deal of iron in the soil, and the arrival deal of iron in the soil, and the arrival deal of iron in the soil, and the arrival deal of iron in the soil, and the arrival deal of iron in the soil, and the arrival deal of iron in the soil, and the arrival deal of iron in the soil, and the arrival deal of iron in the soil and the arrival deal of iron in the soil and the arrival deal of iron in the soil and the arrival deal of iron in the soil and the arrival deal of iron in the soil are dea great deal of iron in the soil, and the springs are full of this property. Another reason why these lands are offered cheap, is the scarcity of labor now existing, to cut down and prepare the timber for market. The county of Statford being occupied during the war, by the federal army, the negroes nearly all left with it, and there is no labor to cultivate the large Deed and stamps at cost of purchaser. tracts lying idle. - Fredericksburg News

SENATOR REVELS, Colored, in an address to the colored people of Baltimore at Bethel church on Sunday evening, gave some excellent advice to his hearers. He said: "Nothing would be more unfortunate than that the bitter recollections of slavery should be perpetuated; nothing is more to be deprecated than the stirring up of resentments beintion to each other of master and slave. As a man who had seen something of slavery, not as it existed in Baltimore, tut in the cotton States, where it took on its worst features, he would say, cultivate the mest friendly relations with your former masters, and never let the recollection of a stripe you have received in tween those who have formerly berne the rerecollection of a stripe you have received in fluence your conduct. "In discussing political questions use strong arguments and soft words. Nothing is to be gained by indulging in bitter and abusive language, whether in the party caucus or in the public meeting. While it was his advice to the colored people to stick to the Republican party, to which they owed everything, he also advised them to refrain from saying or doing anything that will intensify the hostility and prejudices of their political enemies, which is already too great. Beware of unprincipled bearing date April 29, 1859, and of record on bearing date April 29, 1859, and of record on the control of th office-seekers.

THE SOUTH-DISABILITIES. - The New York Times has an article on "Political Disabilities," in which, by a process of ressoning which we comprehend, but hardly relish, Amnesty is quite vigorously urged. The argument is, that as the Missouri election has shown the policy of magnanimity to be popular, hence "Republican" politicians had better heed the lesson. Then comes the confession-we quote the very words: The character of the men who have risen to the surface in Southern politics ever since the war, and particularly of that portion of them which has been contributed by the war, has which has been contributed by the war, has done the South serious damage, moral as well as material, and it will not be mended greatly until the whole community of each State is ad unitted to the management of its affairs; and that this may be done without damage now, we have no doubt.

MEDICAL.

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL.

DR. JOHNSTON, Physician of this celebrated institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the world for all DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures!

Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involutivy Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness; Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sigh, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose of Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices mere fatal to their victims than the song of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysthe song of the Syrons to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, &c.

YOUNG MEN

Especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, and dreadful and destructive habits which annually sweep to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most ex-alted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to estacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power-Impotency.) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualiness, Mervous Debnity, or any other Disquentication, speedily relieved.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored.
This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper in-dulgencies. Young persons are too apt to com-mit excesses from not being aware of the dreadmit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the

Member of the Royal College of Surgeo London, Graduate of one of the most eminemal Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds. nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either busines, study, society or

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weaknese of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspep. sia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symploms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.-The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption. YOUNG MEN

Who have injured themselves by a cottain practice, already described, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or a school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both nind and body, should apple immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pernisions habits. Such paragraphy with laters concious habits. Such persons must, before contemplating

Reflect that a sound mind and body are th most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness, Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happi-ness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has impiled the seeds of pleasure and that he has inclosed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can who, from education and respectability, can alone betriend him, delaying till the constitu-tional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, dealness, nodes or the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveler returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terribie disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskilful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., cestroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life, Vigor and Happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment.
